

ABOUT THE TRAIL

Situated on the shores of spectacular Waterloo Bay between some of the most dramatic coastline on the Eyre Peninsula, Elliston is known as a great place for fishing, swimming, surfing and bush walking.

The Elliston Coastal Trail is 13.6km of walking and driving track spanning our spectacular cliff top coastline between Little Bay Surf Break and Cape Finniss. The trail can be experienced as a whole or via smaller trails; The Little Bay Trail, Clifftop Trail or Beach Loop.

With gentle, well formed compact tracks throughout the trail, walkers of all experience levels can enjoy the coastline, discover the great ecosystem diversity and learn about the history of our community.

EASY - GRADE 2

ELLISTON COASTAL TRAIL

13.6km long

Allow 6 hours return from start.

Flat compacted rubble path or shared roadway. Clearly sign posted. No experience required. Incline at lookout.

EASY - GRADE 2

CLIFFTOP TRAIL

6.5km long

Allow 3 hours return from start.

Flat compacted rubble path or shared roadway. Clearly sign posted.

EASY - GRADE 2

LITTLE BAY TRAIL

2.4km long

Allow 1 hour return from start.

Flat compacted rubble path. Clearly sign posted.

MODERATE - GRADE 4

BEACH LOOP

5.7km long

Allow 1.5 hours return from start.

Flat compacted rubble path or on-beach walking. Beach subject to tides. Inclines at beach entry/exit points.