Porongurup Range FLAVOURS OF THE PORONGURUP RANGE

Welcome to the Porongurup Range

The Flavours of the Porongurup Range Trail is located in one of the oldest mountain ranges in the world.

Here, Karri trees and ancient granite boulders signify all that is unique to this beautiful part of Western Australia.

While this National Park may be small in size, the Porongurup Range is mighty in its offerings! Enjoy a day trip or stay for a night or two while you experience the many flavours from our local enterprises that capture the essence of the Porongurup region.

You can enjoy our award-winning wines, refreshing beers, home cooked food and tantalising cuisine, while taking in the beauty of this majestic tree covered range with sweeping views to the Stirling Ranges in the distance.

Take this opportunity to meet the locals who have forged the character of this village-like community. We look forward to making your journey through the Porongurup Range a truly memorable experience.

Getting around

For those wishing to drive directly, the Porongurup Range is a comfortable 390 kilometre drive from Perth along the Albany Highway.

Alternatively, visit the Porongurup Range from Albany via Chester Pass Road. After 40 Kilometres turn right onto Takalarup Road and right again onto Moorialup Road to find Zarephath Wines. To continue your trail experience, retrace your route to Chester Pass Road and take an immediate left onto Porongurup Road. All the remaining trail sites can be experienced along Porongurup Road until you reach your final destination at Duke's Vineyard.
