Margaret River Region

CRAFT BEER TRAIL

Welcome to the Margaret River Region Craft Beer Trail

We're a crafty lot down south.

The Margaret River Region has the highest concentration of microbreweries in Western Australia - what a great reason to fill your glass with a frothie and say cheers!

Just 20 years ago there was one lone brewery in the region, and as they used to say, they were 'an oasis in a desert of wine'. They're still going strong but are now in great company. Beer lovers are spoilt for choice with more than ten exciting producers who are equally passionate about their beer and the region they call home.

Each of our breweries has their own distinctive style but all have a love for hospitality and sharing their beer with mates on a sunny afternoon down south.

All offering tasting paddles, you're sure to find your favourite beer style at a Margaret River brewery, and quite possibly discover a new one too. We have many award winners amongst the 10 breweries on our trail, with exciting new beers being created all the time. From Saison to Stout, we have you covered.

About the Margaret River Region

Our Craft Beer Trail takes in stunning locations from Busselton along Geographe Bay, picturesque Caves Road to Margaret River and farmland and forest in-between. All are family-friendly and offer food celebrating fresh, seasonal produce with indoor and outdoor dining, some with stunning views.
