- 1 TRAMWAY MUSEUM: An easy walk from the town centre is the Aramac Tramway Museum. The museum contains memorabilia from the early years of settlement in our district. The most famous piece in the museum is the restored 'Aunt Emma' RM28 rail motor which travelled on the tramway linking Aramac to Barcaldine from 1913 to 1975.
- 2 THE WHITE BULL: The statue of the White Bull of Captain Starlight fame stands proudly in the centre of town. Harry Redford was charged with stealing cattle and went to court, along with the white bull which was presented as evidence. The jury found Redford not guilty and the legend of Captain Starlight and the white bull was born.

The centre is part of the Rural Transaction Centre in Gordon Street.

- 6 HEALING CIRCLE: The stone healing circle is an interesting stopping point on your journey to Lake Dunn. It is an ancient sacred healing circle which is connected to six others in the world.
- 7 GRAY ROCK: A sandstone outcrop that was a stopping point for Cobb and Co in the 1870s. The site originally had a hotel which was a changing point for the coach horses.
- 8 HORSETAILER'S GORGE: Once used as a camping spot by drovers. The sides of the gorge form a natural barrier that kept their horses from wandering at night.
