

How to get to Bungaree Station

The drive from Adelaide to Clare...

This drive takes approximately two hours.

The two most commonly used routes from Adelaide are:

1) Heading North of Adelaide via the Northern Expressway, and then to Tarlee, Auburn and Clare – This route takes you through several small townships and past many Clare Valley wineries, and is perfect if you wish for a more scenic drive, stopping for a bite to eat and to taste a few wines along the way.

2) Heading North of Adelaide on the Port Wakefield Road, turning off at Two Wells and passing through Mallala, Balaklava and Blyth to Clare – This route is less scenic but can be quicker, particularly on long weekends.

The 12kms drive from Clare to Bungaree takes about 10 minutes and we are well signposted.

Simply drive North along Main North Road / Highway B82 (Clare's Main Street) which leads out of Clare towards Yacka, Port Pirie and Port Augusta.

After about 6kms, turn left onto Bungaree Road and after 4.3kms you will reach Bungaree Station, on the right hand side of the road.

If you are travelling from Port Augusta/ Port Pirie...

The drive from Port Pirie will take about an hour.

Follow the A1 Highway to Crystal Brook and take the turnoffs to Clare (Highway B62, then Highway B82).

Halfway between Brinkworth and Clare, turn right onto Bungaree Road and follow to Bungaree Station.

The property is well signposted and will be on the left hand side.
